

ROME

THE IRRESISTIBLE ALLURE
OF THE ETERNAL CITY

A STIRRING JOURNEY BACK IN TIME

ANCIENT OSTIA

What better way to experience antiquity than to actually walk through its marvelous vestiges, breathing in the air the ancient Romans used to breathe? Step off the beaten tourist track and take a journey back in time! Spend an enlightening morning visiting Ancient Ostia, a spellbinding archaeological site, led by a dedicated local guide. Located on the Roman Coast, just steps away from the shimmering blue sea, and framed by century-old swaying pine trees, the ruins of Ostia Antica, perfectly preserved, offer the unique chance to experience the past glory of ancient Rome. What we see today used to be ancient Rome's main port; and the different remaining objects and buildings are so excellently maintained that they convey a real sense of the population that lived there around the 4th century. Enjoy discovering the actual grooves made by the mule driven carts laden with grain, the black and white mosaic tiles used in the Terme di Nettuno. Roam through Casa Diana, a forerunner of modern apartment buildings, and marvel at the thermopolium, the stunning bar of the ancient Romans complete of a picture-perfect marble counter and extraordinary frescoes which depict the fruit and foodstuffs once on sale here!

DURATION: 4 hours

Kindly note this tour is available Tuesday through Sunday only as the site is closed on Mondays

INCLUSIONS:

- Private professional licensed English-speaking guide for 4 hours
- Entrance Fees to Ancient Ostia site
- Private transportation from/to your hotel and throughout the tour as needed (4 hours)

INSPIRING VIEWS, MYSTICAL ATMOSPHERES

ASSISI AND ORVIETO

Take a break from the city clamor, leave the crowds and excitement behind and escape to Umbria, Italy's green heart, for an enlightening day's visit to two of Italy's most exquisite hillside towns. Enchanting and strikingly beautiful Assisi and Orvieto are endowed with an incredibly rich artistic and cultural heritage and an unrivalled spiritual legacy. Travel in full comfort with your dedicated private driver, admiring the meadows, vineyards and olive groves dotted by quaint parish churches and golden farmhouses along the way. Meet your charismatic private guide in Assisi, and set off to discover the town, global symbol of peace and a spellbinding jewel. Framed by Umbria's gently rolling hills and crowned by Monte Subasio's thick forests, birthplace of St. Francis, and thus major site of pilgrimage for Catholics ever since the 13th century, Assisi is one of most spiritually important and one of the best-preserved medieval towns in the whole world: this is why the whole town, not just parts of it, is listed as UNESCO world heritage site! Follow your guide through evocative streets trod on yesterday and today by many a pilgrim, monks and nuns. Learn all about the history, discover gorgeous churches and palaces, peek into the quaint local shops where artisans create unique ceramics and sculptures. Let your guide show you through the town's sights and major landmarks, marvel at the aweinspiring, vibrant frescoes by Giotto and other early Renaissance masters in the Basilica of St. Francis, and at the Duomo's stunning Romanesque façade and much more. A glistening crown perched high atop a stony cliff-like peak... the first glimpse one catches of Orvieto is simply dazzling! Founded by the Etruscans, as one can see by the necropoli's vestiges and the objects displayed in the Archeological Museum, and then ruled by the Romans, Orvieto was always very important because of its outstanding and safe position, high on the hilltop. Meet your private guide and explore the town's exquisite center, a maze of cobblestone-paved alleys leading to exquisite medieval squares enhanced by postcard-perfect churches and picturesque ancient buildings. Enjoy hearing all about the town's rich heritage and eventful history as you stroll to the spectacular Duomo, one of Europe's most inspiring Gothic cathedrals. It's an astonishing sight: a hypnotizing display of multi-colored frescoes, gleaming mosaics, and fine-grained braided carvings of flowers and vines. Learn how this amazing building was planned and built (in over 30 years!) thanks to the genius and talent of architects and artists; follow your guide inside and gape at Luca Signorelli's grandiose fresco, which is said to have inspired Michelangelo. And don't forget to take the time to saunter leisurely along the town's perimeter, to catch mystical breezes and views of eternity!

CELLARS, AROMAS AND SPLENDID VIEWS

THE ROMAN CASTELLI WINE EXPERIENCE

Step off the beaten tourist track and discover the views, wines and peacefulness of the Roman countryside! In the ancient times the Castelli were a holiday resort for the well-to-do Romans and in a certain way, because of the lovely views and peaceful ambiance, they still are. The name, “castles” is actually misleading, in fact these are not castles, but towns, charming and picturesque, which rise in the hillside immersed in vegetation, green and luxuriant thanks to the volcanic soil. The name “castelli” actually derives from the historic origin of the towns, which were naturally “born” around the villas of Roman aristocracy that used the area as a holiday resort. Enjoy an out of town excursion to these splendid hills, ramble through hidden valleys and charming towns such as Ariccia and Frascati, and discover the area’s signature product: delectable local wines. The fertile soils here have been used in wine production since the Roman Era and there are thousands of years of winemaking heritage to discover! Admire the rolling hillside, scattered with ancient olive groves and centuries-old vineyards, traveling comfortably by private transportation. Along the way stop at two different wineries, both located in the midst of the rolling Castelli hills, and enjoy the privilege of a guided visit of the grounds and cellars. Learn all about the vineyards and grapes used for the local wines, roam the mysterious cellars and understand how the traditional winemaking techniques have evolved from the Roman Era to the present day. And, at the end of each visit, savor the delectable aroma and taste of the estates’ best blends.

DURATION: 6 hours

INCLUSIONS:

- Private transportation from/to your hotel and throughout the tour as needed (6 hours)
- Visit and tastings at two different local wineries

Lunch is not included. Your driver will be pleased to suggest charming typical options and book on your behalf.

AN EVOCATIVE INSIDER'S TOUR

THE TRASTEVERE DISTRICT AND THE JEWISH GHETTO

Discover Rome's most picturesque and magical areas: the quaint, popular, Trastevere neighborhood and fascinating ancient Jewish Ghetto! Meet your dedicated English-speaking guide and private driver at your hotel and set off to explore the Jewish Ghetto, a labyrinth of streets, alleys and squares where Jews were once confined. Led by your guide enjoy a memorable stroll, admire marvelous ancient buildings dating back to Roman and Medieval periods and marvel at the many hidden fountains and quiet squares where time seems to have stopped. Yes, because the Ghetto's daily pace and rhythm are slow and relaxed, completely different from the lively yet somewhat hectic life of the rest of the city. Uncover the legends and stories of times gone by as you walk along streets lined by ancient palaces and enjoy visiting the lovely Rome Synagogue with a specialized in-house Synagogue guide. Then walk along the breezy banks of the wide Tiber river to the Isola Tiberina, an actual island in the middle of the river, and cross across to the charming Trastevere neighborhood, which means, literally, "across from the Tiber river"! this area is said to be the "birthplace of real Romans": it is only in Trastevere, nestled in the midst of the low buildings in colors of terracotta and maize, the pretty porches filled with flowers, the cobblestone alleys and little doors, Romans say, lies the real heart of Rome, it's quiet ancient charm and hidden beauty. During the tour stop for a taste of authentic Jewish-Roman delicacy.

DURATION: 4 hours

INCLUSIONS:

- Private professional licensed English-speaking guide for 4 hours
- Private one-way transportation from your hotel (in Rome city center) to the Jewish Ghetto area

ANCIENT GRANDEUR AND RENAISSANCE INTRIGUE IN THE ROMAN HILLS

TIVOLI AND ITS GORGEOUS VILLAS

Away from the crowds and into the sunshine! Leave the hustle and bustle of the city behind, head out to the countryside and discover the many beauties of Tivoli. This charming hilltop town, once the lavish summer resort for the ancient Romans and the wealthy lords of the Renaissance, houses two stunning Unesco World Heritage Sites: Villa Adriana, the extensive estate of Emperor Hadrian, and the 16th-century Villa d'Este, a Renaissance villa celebrated for its legendary gardens and opulent fountains. Follow your guide through Hadrian's enchanting Villa Adriana, built by the emperor in the 2nd century A.D. to be a modest (!) summer resort as a lasting tribute to his lover. Exploring the ruins of the estate, over 30 buildings, you will admire remnants of thermal baths, libraries, temples and wide underground passages and learn all about the emperor and his court's daily customs. Proceed on to Villa d'Este, considered to be one of the most enchanting villas and a superlative example of a Renaissance park. Follow your guide through the villa's stunning gardens featuring water-spouting gargoyles, cypress tree-lined lanes and more than 500 extravagant fountains. Admire the famous Fountain of Neptune and the Fountain of the Organ, designed by Bernini, which is said to have provided inspiration for composer Franz Liszt, and let your guide lead you through Renaissance intrigue, with tales and secrets about how the villa was built for the son of Lucretia Borgia, a scandalous Italian duchess who created a lot of drama in 15th century Italy. Emperors and duchesses, intrigue and fountains... a captivating day, in an outstanding scenario!

Follow your guide through enchanting Villa Adriana, built by Hadrian to be a modest (!) summer resort for his lover. Explore the ruins of the estate, including remnants of thermal baths, libraries and temples, and learn all about the court's daily customs. Proceed on to Villa d'Este and its superlative classical Renaissance gardens, a stunning park studded by water-spouting gargoyles, and over 500 extravagant fountains. Admire the Fountain of Neptune and Fountain of the Organ, and let your guide lead you into the depths of Renaissance intrigue, with tales about the son of Lucretia Borgia, a scandalous 15th century duchess.

Then set off to discover the views and peaceful ambiance of the Castelli, once a holiday resort for the well-to-do Romans. The name, "castles" is misleading: these are not castles, but towns immersed in luxuriant vegetation. Visit delightful Frascati and discover the town's signature typical wines, golden and light in flavor: the fertile soils here have been used in wine production since the Roman Era, there are thousands of years of winemaking heritage to uncover! Stop at a winery along the way, visit of the grounds and cellars, learn all about the grapes used and understand how the traditional winemaking techniques have evolved from the Roman era to the present day. Crown your day with a memorable tasting the estates' best blends.

Emperors, duchesses, intrigue and fountains, hills and delicious wines... a captivating day, in an outstanding scenario!

A BEWITCHING JOURNEY UNDER THE SURFACE

UNDERGROUND ROME

Whatever lies down below, deep under the throbbing beat of Rome's hustle and bustle? Experience the thrill of discovering a secret "underworld" filled with haunting vestiges of times long gone by, see mindblowing hidden burials and pagan temples unrenowned to most travelers. Discover what lies under the surface of the Eternal city visit some of the most gripping sights in town led by a knowledgeable specialized guide, unveil the Rome's fascinating turbulent past! Start your journey through the centuries visiting the eerie Crypt of the Capuchin Friars, a one-of-a-kind catacomb which houses the skeletons of around 4,000 friars, and get ready to be surprised: the "collection" comprises numerous bones arranged in lamps, sculptures and mosaic-like display, some of the monks are amazingly well preserved and... still wearing their habits! Continue your exploration discovering the Basilica di San Clemente, a bewitching multilayered church. Follow your guide down to the mysterious lower level, to admire the vestiges of a 1st-century Roman house and dusky 2nd-century pagan temple dedicated to Mithras, with an altar showing the god slaying a bull. Then travel across town to reach the oldest road still in existence, the ancient Appian Way, ancient Rome's most important artery and... Europe's first highway! Paved with enormous flat stones placed by the ancient Romans' grandiose engineer work, it is framed by fields studded with historic tombs and ruins nearly unchanged since the 4th century. Stop along the way to view one of its most striking features, a mysterious Catacomb. Roam the underground and learn why the catacombs are one of the most important pilgrimage sites in Italy. Your guide will reveal the site's legends and secrets and tell you all about the past burial rituals.

ROME'S PIAZZAS AND FOUNTAINS

WATER, STONE AND MAGIC

Water gently dripping into richly decorated basins, nymphs and animals of all sorts dancing above the flow, wall fountains, drinking fountains and monumental “talking” fountains... the first thing one notices when visiting Rome is the amazing number of incredible fountains and imposing hydraulic structures around. Just think: Rome boasts over 2000 fountains in all, more than any other city in the world. Enjoy an unusual viewpoint of the Eternal city's many marvels, follow Rome's ancient water and statue-studded path led by a charismatic specialized local guide, and learn about the city's centuries-old history and artistic legacy. Start your day at the Trevi Fountain, the world's most spectacular show-fountain (made even more famous by the Anita Ekberg wading in it at night, in Fellini's “La dolce vita”!) Learn about Baroque and water, and remember to throw a coin into the basin, over your shoulder with your back to the fountain, if you ever want to return to Rome! Follow your guide down evocative streets to Piazza di Spagna, Rome's most iconic meeting place, to admire the Fontana della Barcaccia shaped like a semisubmerged boat. Stroll down stylish Via del Babuino and marvel at the curious semi grotesque “Babuino”, one of Rome's “talking statues”. Visit romantic Piazza Navona, decorated with three fountains: the one at the centre is the legendary fountain of the Four Rivers, created by Bernini in 1651. It represents the Four Rivers which stand for the four continents known at the time, dominated by the church of Rome. Crown your experience viewing the impressive Pantheon: perfectly preserved it is covered by the biggest cupola ever built by the Romans and boasts a unique circular carving in the ceiling which allows the sun rays to enter, giving the temple a spectacular lighting.
