GLORIOUS BAROQUE, PALM TREES AND LUSCIOUS STREET FOOD

A DAY IN PALERMO

Moorish domes, mosaics and dizzying open-air markets... explore Palermo, a surprising city made of date palms, baroque churches and Gothic palaces led by a dedicated private guide, and savor the Sicilian Dolce Vita tasting luscious local specialties! Inhabited by Phoenicians, Carthaginians, Greeks, Romans, Byzantines, Arabs, Normans, and Bourbons Palermo has always been a crossroad of civilizations and boasts a dramatic history, superb art and a rich centuries-old heritage. Admire the city's main landmarks, among which the Teatro Massimo, one of the most well-known and photographed attractions in the city (and renowned for the final scene of The Godfather n.3!), and Teatro Politeama, and splendid Piazza Marina. Dive into the local history and legends visiting stately Palazzo dei Normanni, headquarters of Sicily's regional parliament, admiring the spectacular frescoes in its royal apartments and magnificent chapel, the world-renowned Cappella Palatina. Follow your guide to Palermo's glorious Cathedral, an iconic example of Arab-Norman architecture. Built starting in 1184, modified and enlarged through the centuries it features crenellations, maiolica cupolas and geometrical patterns outside, and houses the royal Norman tombs and gem-studded jewels of the treasury, among which Costanza d'Aragona's striking gold filigree crown. During the day enjoy a bite of the most tantalizing local street food delights, such as deep-fried arancina and chickpea panelle, and an enlightening insider's view of the city's manifold artisan spirit. Follow your guide through the voice-filled streets and alleys and browse the characteristic craft shops to learn the centuries-old techniques used by skilled artisans to make the typical hand painted wooden wagons, leather goods, the characteristic Sicilian "pupi" marionettes and much more!

CAPTIVATING VIEWS AND SUN-KISSED VILLAGES

EXPLORING THE AMALFI COAST

Eye-catching, seductive, simply gorgeous... the Amalfi Coast is a Mediterranean icon! Explore it in full comfort traveling by private transportation escorted by a dedicated local guide throughout the day. Relax and lose yourself in the views: dizzying cliffs crowned by verdant gardens, citrus fruit orchards and exquisite pastel-hued villages perched high above deep gorges and the deep blue sea. Learn about the coast's sun-kissed towns, Positano, Sorrento, Amalfi and Ravello, lovely holiday resorts beloved by Italians and travelers. Visit stylish Ravello, perhaps the Amalfi Coast's most glamorous destination, built high up on a hill instead of on the coast because it was founded in the 5th century as a sanctuary from barbarian invaders. Admire the hillside villas and exquisite main square and catch a sequel of breathtaking views wandering down the picturesque streets to the town's most celebrated sight, the spectacular Villa Rufolo, world-renowned for its superb cascading gardens. Built for the rich Rufolo family the villa is famous because it is the site that inspired Richard Wagner as the setting for the second act of his Parsifal. Enter the property via the splendid ornamental Tower gateway, built in Gothic style with a pointed arch, walk between evocative ancient walls lined with cypresses and lime trees and discover the villa's exceptional features among which the Moorish Court, majestic Great Tower, the Garden pavilion, Belvedere and gorgeous park. Restored by Sir Francis Neville Reid in 1853 and called "the Garden of Soul" the park is an awe-inspiring succession of exotic colors, glistening bushes, artistically crumbling towers and sumptuous blooms of all kinds.

INCLUSIONS:

STUNNING CLIFFSIDE VISTAS AND FASCINATING VILLAGES

LE CINQUE TERRE EXPERIENCE

Spend a memorable day exploring one of the world's most spectacular coastal areas, the famed Cinque Terre, a fairytale-like destination where land and sea meet, led by the knowledge and personal attention of your dedicated private guide. Unveil the secrets and authentic charm of the area off-the-beaten tourist path, relish the flavors of ancient typical cuisine and aromas of sensational wines. Set amid some of the most dramatic coastal scenery on the planet le Cinque Terre, five ingeniously constructed fishing villages, are a Unesco World Heritage site since 1997, and still today look very much like a version of a seafront garden of Eden! Let your guide lead you into the heart and soul of this treasure chest of natural beauty and traditions traveling with your private driver, and then by train and boat! Admire the scenery: sinuous paths run across stunning cliffsides, and a 19th-century railway line cut through a series of coastal tunnels ferries the footsore from village to village. Learn all about the Cinque Terre's history and unique feature from your guide: the steeply terraced cliffs bisected by a complicated system of fields and gardens hacked, chiseled, shaped and layered over the course of nearly two millennia. So marked are these artificial contours that some scholars have compared the extensive muretti (low stone walls) to the Great Wall of China! And all enhanced by the charming villages - Riomaggiore, founded in the 8th century by Greek settlers fleeing persecution in Byzantium, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola and Monterosso - which look onto the gleaming pristine waters of the sea. Lose yourself in the gorgeous scenery and explore a few of the fascinating villages on foot. Crown your day with a memorable typical Ligurian lunch in a restaurant of your choice.

CAVE DWELLINGS AND... THE BEST BREAD IN THE WORLD!

MATERA AND ALTAMURA

Whitewashed villages where time seems to have stopped, an alluring coastline, legends of pirates, untracked forests and mountains. Authentic and largely unexplored Puglia and Basilicata seem to blend into a vivid kaleidoscopic land where ancient traditions are alive and honored, the cultural richness is amazing and the rustic home-made cuisine scrumptious. Enjoy the privilege of exploring Matera and Altamura, two of the Italy's peerless jewels, led by a charismatic local private guide. Start your day in evocative Matera, world-renowned for its extensive ancient cave-dwellings district, the sassi, (also the setting for Mel Gibson's "Passion of Christ"). Follow your guide through the stunning streets and get ready to be surprised! The first natural caves in the tufa limestone were first inhabited 7000 years ago, more elaborate ones were added on top and today one feels transported back in time into a mythical, biblical scene. Then set off to discover Altamura, an important historical town renowned for its striking tower-crowned cathedral and picturesque medieval streets and beloved throughout all of Italy for its extraordinary signature bread, called "the best bread in the world" by the Latin poet Horace back in 37 BC! Get to know the town's characteristic lifestyle, admire the main landmarks and stroll down the tiny alleyways to discover the typical bakeries. Each with its own wood-fired oven and one-of-a-kind rustic atmosphere these are the birthplaces of the famous pane di Altamura, anciently kneaded by each family at home, and then baked in public ovens where the baker marked the loaves with the family's initials of the head of the family. Join the locals in one of the bakeries for a memorable taste of this precious fragrant specialty, with its dark crisp crust and yellow-hued soft and fluffy inside.
